Blackwell Job Corps Center Announces Several Job Opportunities

Laona, WI – September 15, 2010

The Blackwell Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center has also announced that it will be filling several positions. The Career Transition Specialist and Counselor positions are permanent full time while a Social Services Aid position is call as needed. The duty station is Laona, Wisconsin. A strong interest and commitment in working with a culturally diverse Job Corps student population, ages 16-24, frequently under stressful conditions is needed. This includes helping students reach their full potential as completers of the program and in successful placement activities. If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please visit their website at <http://Blackwell.jobcorps.gov> and click "Center Jobs" found on the left hand side of the page.

Job Corps is the nation's oldest and largest residential job training program for economically disadvantaged youth. This program is free for eligible students and includes benefits such as career, technical, academic and life skills training, housing, and health care. Each year, Job Corps helps more than 60,000 students reach their goals for personal and professional success.

The Blackwell Job Corps Center is located in Laona, WI. For more information on how to enroll in Job Corps or to schedule a tour, please call (715)674-2311.
