Blackwell Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center Open House

Jul 21 - Laona, WI - Blackwell JCCCC will be hosting an Open House Event on Friday, August 5, 2011 in Laona, WI. The public is invited to attend this annual event and find out what goes on at the Blackwell Job Corps Center. Come out and tour our education and trade training facilities and while you are here have lunch on us.

There will be free door prizes, free lunch and games for the kids. This will be a wonderful time to highlight the students and all of their achievements while at Job Corps. The tours will begin at 9:00 a.m. running every fifteen minutes with the last tour taking place at 2:30 p.m. Lunch will be a cookout with burgers, bratwursts and all the sides and will begin at 11:45 a.m. and run until 12:45 p.m. Question and Answers sessions will take place at 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. for any questions you might have about our educational and trade training programs. No need to call ahead, just come out and join us for some good family fun.

The Blackwell JCCCC is associated with the Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest. The Blackwell Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center serves 205 students. The USDA Forest Service operates 28 Job Corps Civilian Conservation Centers across 18 states with a capacity of 6,200 students. For more information, visit: <http://www.jobcorps.gov/>

The mission of the USDA Forest Service is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the Nation's forests and grasslands to meet the needs of present and future generations. The Agency manages 193 million acres of public land, provides assistance to State and private landowners, and maintains the largest forestry research organization in the world.

The Blackwell Job Corps Center is located in Laona, WI. For more information on the Center, please call (715)674-2311 or visit the website at <http://blackwell.jobcorps.gov>
